Big Book of Old-Time Spot Illustrations

Edited by Hayward Cirker

This comprehensive collection of nearly 2,800 finely detailed illustrations furnishes graphic artists and craftspeople with a wealth of authentic early-20th-century advertising art—ideal for enhancing a host of artistic and craft projects.

Hundreds of nostalgic, ready-to-use cuts include: cars, wagons, trains, and other modes of transportation; musical instruments, domestic furnishings, and floral displays; shoes, hats, gloves, and assorted wearing apparel; as well as dogs, cows, birds, and other animals. Here also are vignettes with circus, holiday, and patriotic themes; borders, banners, and mortised cuts; mining scenes and office equipment; soldiers, policemen, athletes, portraits of several American presidents; logos and signs for florists, pawnbrokers, and other businesses; and numerous other subjects.

Artists, illustrators, and craftspeople will want to use these copyright-free spots to add period charm to their projects. Casual browsers and lovers of Americana will delight in these entertaining illustrations from bygone days.
